

Arthur Brisbane Will Write for This Paper

We are about to begin publication of a feature of such brilliancy and individuality that, were it unsigned, careful readers of newspapers would immediately identify its authorship.

It is not improbable that something like 20,000,000 sturdy Americans of all classes, including thousands of writers believe that Arthur Brisbane is the greatest editorial writer of the present day. "Think, think, think," is his slogan, and his immense following is due to the fact that he can phrase his thoughts with such brevity and clarity that they are immediately understood by everyone.

Champion and exemplar of the square deal, Arthur Brisbane is the apostle of tomorrow, the prophet of a better time. Human nature, harassed, perplexed, accepts the Brisbane faith that the tomorrow of the race will be greater, finer, nobler, more bearable than it is today. Every day, therefore, one-fifth of the newspaper reading population of the United States consumes his editorials as hungrily as it eats bran or oatmeal and toast and eggs.

Brisbane has an unequalled facility for simplifying complex material and making it attractive. For example, if he wanted to 'put over' a talk on hygiene and dieties, he would entitle it 'Pity Poor Moses: He Had No Ice-Box.' His writings have achieved a reputation for the originality which attracts, the brilliancy which holds, the paradox which makes people think and the bluntness which convinces.

The adage: 'Whatever is right, does not go with Brisbane. What ever is isn't right, to him. It can be, and should be, better. He is the highest priced editorial writer in the world. He wouldn't be and couldn't be so high priced, if his clear and humanly attractive philosophy were not worth the money.

We shall carry a column entitled, 'This Week,' by Arthur Brisbane. It will be just what its name implies—thoughts inspired by the latest happenings and trends throughout the world, but more particularly in America. The feature will seize and hold you, greatly to your entertainment and profit.

6209 BALES COTTON RECEIVED IN CAMERON

RECEIPTS AHEAD OF LAST YEAR BECAUSE OF EARLY CROP GATHERING HERE

Up to Wednesday 6209 bales cotton had been received at the warves of the Cameron Compress Company from the city. This figure is far in advance of the number of bales this time last year due to the early maturity of the crop and the dry weather.

In the month of August only .05 inches of rain fell in Cameron and the average over the county would not exceed that to any extent.

The cotton crop in the bottom lands is yet uncertain of production. Some of the old cotton in the bottom lands is showing some yield but generally very short. The young cotton planted since the overflows has shown little indication of yield.

The holding movement has begun in this county, many farmers holding their cotton for a higher price which they believe will come as a result of the short crop. The next government forecast is looked forward to with interest.

Three Elders and six Deacons will be ordained. In preparation for this most sacred service, all members of the congregation are asked to begin the day with fasting and prayer. The hearty cooperation of every member is cherished and solicited.

BABE SCHINDLER AT SKEEZIN

Babe Schindler and his orchestra will play at Skeezin Friday night. This is one of the finest orchestras in the state and Mr. Cammer secured them especially to play for his last vacation dance.

ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDER OF EASTERN STAR CELEBRATED HERE

A joint celebration of the anniversary of Robert Morris, founder of the Order of Eastern Star, was held Friday evening August 30 at Wayside Inn. The Cameron, Gause and Rockdale chapters of the order participated in the celebration which was well attended.

Judge Jeff T. Kemp delivered the following address in honor of the founder of the order:

"Tonight we honor the founder and patriarch, Robert Morris, widely known as a Masonic poet, and later as poet laureate of Free Masonry. He was born August 31, 1818, initiated in Oxford (now Gathright) Lodge No. 33, in Oxford, Miss., March 5, 1846, he being at that time principal of Mount Sylvan Academy. Thenceforth until his death, July 31, 1888 he was a speaker for further light and all branches of Free Masonry felt the touch of his master hand. His labors in the Eastern Star have been those of Architect and Master Builder. He was never quite satisfied that all the good in Masonry should be confined to men. There was always in his mind the thought that Masonry should be for the entire family. In 1850, while confined to his home by illness, he evolved and fully developed the Eastern Star.

"In 1855 he published a Ritual and under it organized bodies known as Constellations. The Ritual was complicated and quite lengthy, only one degree being given at a stated meeting; and on account of this fact it was hard to keep up the interest in the Order. The arrangement of the Constellation system was published in 1855 and it was the old ritual of 1793 and 1819 simplified. In 1859 the Friendly Family system was arranged by Robert Morris. This was a condensed form of the Constellation system. The Order was now termed 'Adoptive Masonry of the Eastern Star.' The first Eastern Star chapter was instituted in Rochester, Mich., on December 15, 1866 and the Grand Body in 1867.

TWO MEN DROWN TRYING TO SAVE GIRL FROM DEATH IN WATER; ARE BURIED IN GIDDINGS TUESDAY

SCHOOL BELLS TO RING MONDAY SEPTEMBER 9

ALL IN READINESS FOR NEW TERM FOR CAMERON SCHOOLS MONDAY

With an increased attendance over the previous year the 1929-30 term of school for the Cameron schools will begin on Monday, September 9.

Superintendent T. A. Fisher has everything in readiness for the opening date here Monday and with his able faculty will guide the educational destiny of the more than 1200 pupils who will seek knowledge in the program of instruction.

The calendar as adopted by the Board of Trustees for the coming term is as follows:

Monday, September 9, school opens. September 26-27, Teachers Institute.

November 11, Armistice Day, holiday.

November 28-29, Thanksgiving holidays.

December 20, schools close for Christmas holidays.

January 1, schools open for holidays.

January 23-24, examinations for first semester.

January 27, second term begins.

April 21, San Jacinto Day, holiday.

May 8, Yoe Day, holiday.

May 28-29, final examinations.

Sunday, June 1, Baccalaureate sermon.

June 2, Graduation exercises.

Advanced enrollment on the part of students from the rural districts indicates a substantial increase over last year's enrollment in the high school. Records in the County Superintendents office show 220 transfers into the Cameron district. Of this number about 160 are white and 60 colored. Of the white transfers approximately 120 are for high school purposes.

An amendment to the high school tuition law passed by the last session of the Legislature places the high school tuition rate at $7.50 per month instead of $5.00 as heretofore and the Cameron board has set the rate of tuition for high school students whose parents reside outside the city at $7.50 per month to conform to the new state law. Tuition for high school pupils is payable by the home district when the grade to which the pupil belongs is not taught in the home district, otherwise the parent is responsible for the payment of tuition.

In accordance with a ruling recently adopted by the Board of Education effective for the coming session children who will be seven years of age on or before June 1, 1930, will be admitted to the first grade at the opening of school in September, and children who will be six years old on or before June 1, 1930 will be admitted to the kindergarten. In compliance with the State law fixing the fee school age a tuition charge of $1.50 per month will be made for pupils in the first grade who have not reached seven years of age on September 1, 1929. No tuition charge will be made in the kindergarten for children living in Cameron.

Cameron Judge To Hear Rebecca Rogers Case New Braunfels

Judge John Watson will preside at the trial of Rebecca Rogers which has been called for next week in the 22nd District Court in New Braunfels. Judge Jeffrey will come to Cameron to preside over the court of Judge Watson during the trial of the Rogers case.

Rebecca Rogers, a student at University of Texas, is charged with the robbery of the Buda State Bank in 1928. After her arrest it was discovered that she had been secretly married to her husband who was a young lawyer and his dramatic defense of her at LaGrange was one of the most interesting court room epics in the history of Texas.

The case is widely known for its dramatic developments. Judge Watson will probably be in New Braunfels for about 3 weeks if the case goes to trial.

Miss Lillie Kate Beckerman returned Sunday from Mineola and Buffalo where she has been visiting friends. Miss Beckerman will teach in Thornedale this winter.

Seven 8-foot show cases and counters for sale dirt cheap at E. O. Schillers Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kilian attended the funeral services of Mr. Kilian's uncle, Mr. Herman Gersch, and his nephew, Mr. Walter Gersch, held at Giddings, Tuesday, August 27.

The two men were drowned on August 24 at San Luis Pass at the western end of Galveston Island, about thirty miles from the city of Galveston. They, with a party of friends from Giddings and Houston, were camping at San Luis Pass over the week end.

Mr. Gersch, who was head of the Farmers Supply Co., at Giddings and his son, manager of the system store, were fishing and the other members of the party were in swimming when Miss Ella Birkman, one of the group was caught in a whirlpool. When she cried for help, the elder Mr. Gersch started to her assistance, but before he reached her he was evidently struck with heart failure. Attending physicians attributed his death to this cause, as there was no water in his lungs.

Walter Gersch then tried to save the young lady, but he was caught in the undertow after he managed to free her, and his body was swept under. It was not recovered.

A double funeral service was held for the two men, who were 54 and 23 years of age, respectively. Mr. Walter Gersch had been married only three months.

Maytag Shop Moves To Sampson Bldg.

The Maytag Shop has been moved from the building occupied by the Keith Electric Company to the building owned by T. G. Sampson and formerly occupied by the Max Collins tailor shop.

Mr. Carson, the manager for the Maytag Shop has recently been given Brazos county to add to his territory.

The new location for the shop will afford greater display space and Mr. Carson looks for a good business this fall and next spring in the sale of the Maytag washing machines.

F. A. Marek Named Member of Cameron School Board

F. A. Marek of the Exchange Furniture Company, has been named by the City Council a member of the Cameron School Board to succeed Wm. Henderson.

Mr. Henderson retired from the board because his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Strickland is to be a member of the faculty this year.

Mr. Marek will bring to the board the experience of many years a business man and his many friends will be pleased to know that he has been called to this responsible place.

Only 50 Per Cent Of Births Are Registered In Milam County

According to figures compiled from data secured by the scholastic census enumerators and checked with the birth certificates on file with the State Health Department only 50 per cent of the children born in Milam county during 1928 were registered by the physician or midwife in attendance, as required by law. Among the whites only 61 per cent were registered, while only 32 per cent of the negroes were registered, and only 20 per cent of the Mexicans were registered. This shows clearly that the doctors and midwives are failing to comply with the law and are thus depriving one-half of the children of the protection of a legal record of their age, parentage and citizenship.

This failure is also causing the veterans of the World War and their widows a considerable amount of trouble and expense in filing claims for compensation with the Veteran's Bureau.

A concerted drive is being made at this time in an effort to improve registration in Texas so that it may be admitted to the Federal Registration Area during 1929. If this is to be done the combined efforts of all civic agencies and local officials is necessary. Only two other states are outside of the Area at this time. 90 per cent efficiency is required for admission.

Miss Eulene Slaughter left Monday for Waco to enroll as a student at Four C Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Ruby and children of Eagle Lake were guests Sunday and Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruby.

TWO MEN DROWN TRYING TO SAVE GIRL FROM DEATH IN WATER; ARE BURIED IN GIDDINGS TUESDAY

SCHOOL BELLS TO RING MONDAY SEPTEMBER 9

ALL IN READINESS FOR NEW TERM FOR CAMERON SCHOOLS MONDAY

With an increased attendance over the previous year the 1929-30 term of school for the Cameron schools will begin on Monday, September 9.

Superintendent T. A. Fisher has everything in readiness for the opening date here Monday and with his able faculty will guide the educational destiny of the more than 1200 pupils who will seek knowledge in the program of instruction.

The calendar as adopted by the Board of Trustees for the coming term is as follows:

Monday, September 9, school opens. September 26-27, Teachers Institute.

November 11, Armistice Day, holiday.

November 28-29, Thanksgiving holidays.

December 20, schools close for Christmas holidays.

January 1, schools open for holidays.

January 23-24, examinations for first semester.

January 27, second term begins.

April 21, San Jacinto Day, holiday.

May 8, Yoe Day, holiday.

May 28-29-30, final examinations.

Sunday, June 1, Baccalaureate sermon.

June 2, Graduation exercises.

Advanced enrollment on the part of students from the rural districts indicates a substantial increase over last year's enrollment in the high school. Records in the County Superintendents office show 220 transfers into the Cameron district. Of this number about 160 are white and 60 colored. Of the white transfers approximately 120 are for high school purposes.

An amendment to the high school tuition law passed by the last session of the Legislature places the high school tuition rate at $7.50 per month instead of $5.00 as heretofore and the Cameron board has set the rate of tuition for high school students whose parents reside outside the city at $7.50 per month to conform to the new state law. Tuition for high school pupils is payable by the home district when the grade to which the pupil belongs is not taught in the home district, otherwise the parent is responsible for the payment of tuition.

In accordance with a ruling recently adopted by the Board of Education effective for the coming session children who will be seven years of age on or before June 1, 1930, will be admitted to the first grade at the opening of school in September, and children who will be six years old on or before June 1, 1930 will be admitted to the kindergarten. In compliance with the State law fixing the fee school age a tuition charge of $1.50 per month will be made for pupils in the first grade who have not reached seven years of age on September 1, 1929. No tuition charge will be made in the kindergarten for children living in Cameron.

Cameron Judge To Hear Rebecca Rogers Case New Braunfels

Judge John Watson will preside at the trial of Rebecca Rogers which has been called for next week in the 22nd District Court in New Braunfels. Judge Jeffrey will come to Cameron to preside over the court of Judge Watson during the trial of the Rogers case.

Rebecca Rogers, a student at University of Texas, is charged with the robbery of the Buda State Bank in 1928. After her arrest it was discovered that she had been secretly married to her husband who was a young lawyer and his dramatic defense of her at LaGrange was one of the most interesting court room epics in the history of Texas.

The case is widely known for its dramatic developments. Judge Watson will probably be in New Braunfels for about 3 weeks if the case goes to trial.

Miss Lillie Kate Beckerman returned Sunday from Mineola and Buffalo where she has been visiting friends. Miss Beckerman will teach in Thornedale this winter.

Seven 8-foot show cases and counters for sale dirt cheap at E. O. Schillers Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kilian attended the funeral services of Mr. Kilian's uncle, Mr. Herman Gersch, and his nephew, Mr. Walter Gersch, held at Giddings, Tuesday, August 27.

The two men were drowned on August 24 at San Luis Pass at the western end of Galveston Island, about thirty miles from the city of Galveston. They, with a party of friends from Giddings and Houston, were camping at San Luis Pass over the week end.

Mr. Gersch, who was head of the Farmers Supply Co., at Giddings and his son, manager of the system store, were fishing and the other members of the party were in swimming when Miss Ella Birkman, one of the group was caught in a whirlpool. When she cried for help, the elder Mr. Gersch started to her assistance, but before he reached her he was evidently struck with heart failure. Attending physicians attributed his death to this cause, as there was no water in his lungs.

Walter Gersch then tried to save the young lady, but he was caught in the undertow after he managed to free her, and his body was swept under. It was not recovered.

A double funeral service was held for the two men, who were 54 and 23 years of age, respectively. Mr. Walter Gersch had been married only three months.

Maytag Shop Moves To Sampson Bldg.

The Maytag Shop has been moved from the building occupied by the Keith Electric Company to the building owned by T. G. Sampson and formerly occupied by the Max Collins tailor shop.

Mr. Carson, the manager for the Maytag Shop has recently been given Brazos county to add to his territory.

The new location for the shop will afford greater display space and Mr. Carson looks for a good business this fall and next spring in the sale of the Maytag washing machines.

F. A. Marek Named Member of Cameron School Board

F. A. Marek of the Exchange Furniture Company, has been named by the City Council a member of the Cameron School Board to succeed Wm. Henderson.

Mr. Henderson retired from the board because his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Strickland is to be a member of the faculty this year.

Mr. Marek will bring to the board the experience of many years a business man and his many friends will be pleased to know that he has been called to this responsible place.

Only 50 Per Cent Of Births Are Registered In Milam County

According to figures compiled from data secured by the scholastic census enumerators and checked with the birth certificates on file with the State Health Department only 50 per cent of the children born in Milam county during 1928 were registered by the physician or midwife in attendance, as required by law. Among the whites only 61 per cent were registered, while only 32 per cent of the negroes were registered, and only 20 per cent of the Mexicans were registered.

This shows clearly that the doctors and midwives are failing to comply with the law and are thus depriving one-half of the children of the protection of a legal record of their age, parentage and citizenship.

This failure is also causing the veterans of the World War and their widows a considerable amount of trouble and expense in filing claims for compensation with the Veterans' Bureau.

A concerted drive is being made at this time in an effort to improve registration in Texas so that it may be admitted to the Federal Registration Area during 1929. If this is to be done the combined efforts of all civic agencies and local officials is necessary. Only two other states are outside of the Area at this time. 90 per cent efficiency is required for admission.

Miss Euline Slaughter left Monday for Waco to enroll as a student at Four C Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Ruby and children of Eagle Lake were guests Sunday and Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruby.

PAINFUL INDIGESTION

Lady Says She Obtained Relief By Taking Small Doses of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Ardmore, Okla.—"I have recommended Black-Draught to a great many people, and they always thank me, afterwards," says Mrs. Czarina Duke, 116 "B" Street, this city. "Fifteen years ago, I was in very bad health. I suffered a great deal with indigestion, and I traveled from one place to another in search of health, but nothing helped me. I lost in weight, and my food disagreed with me, and I could scarcely eat a bite that did not give me indigestion. "Often I had bad gas pains across my stomach, and I would wake up in the mornings with very bad headaches. I had a bad taste in my mouth, and would feel dizzy when I was on my feet.

"I began taking Black-Draught and soon found that I was getting better. I took a dose about the size of a pea, four or five times a day, for three or four days.

"After I had taken several courses of Black-Draught, in that way, I felt fine. I no longer had indigestion. I could eat what I liked, and enjoyed my meals. I gained in weight, and felt able to care for my children and do my housework."

In use nearly a hundred years. Twenty-five doses 25¢. NC-213

The Essex Car

Is only one of the many desirable things we have in stock. It is the best of its kind, of course in our opinion. Equally as good in its way is the spirit of courtesy we put behind it, the maintenance system we provide for all its owners, the personal interest we take in each and every one of them, the conscientious effort we make to do things right and earn our customers friendship.

The Essex car is a great machine and deserves that kind of backing. But the credit for that goes to the Essex factory. We could not build it here if we wanted to but we can build a business atmosphere to match it in quality, and we work days and nights to accomplish that purpose.

The Essex owner is the judge of our success. Ask him about the spirit of our business.

There was a good attendance at the semi-monthly meeting of the Maysfield Ladies Aid held on Wednesday afternoon, August 28 with Mrs. Hartsfield as hostess. The president, Mrs. Hubert Atkinson led the devotional, 10th chapter of I Kings, being the Bible reading.

The Bible lesson on the women of the Bible was then taken up, 'The Queen of Sheba' being the character study at this meeting. The rest of the time was taken up with the embroidery and rug work that is being done by the ladies. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess consisting of a nut sundae and cake.

One guest and the following members were present: Mrs. Harry Bozeman of Lorenza, Texas and Mesdames Wm. Freeman, H. L. Yager, Hubert Atkinson, Eugene Barmore, E. G. Newton, Wise, R. B. Mayes, R. S. Newton, Minnie Hartsfield and Miss Bertha Kelso. The Society will meet next week with Mrs. R. B. Mayes.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The ladies of the Presbyterian church met Monday afternoon at the church for a business meeting, inaugurating the fall work. Following the devotional which was led by the president, Mrs. John A. Green, plans for the coming year were discussed and these included the sale of Christmas cards, the Fall rummage sale, and the Christmas bazaar. Plans were also formed for a fifth Monday social in September.

A resume of the work for the first six months of the year was heard and the auxiliary is in good standing in every respect.

The vacation period during the summer when the ladies met only once each month has ended, and regular meetings will be held now each Monday at the church on the first and third Mondays and in circles on the second and fourth.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon for a business session. In the absence of the president, Mrs. R. H. Davis, who is ill, the vice-president, Mrs. Howard Baskin, presided at the meeting. Mrs. John Olson led the devotional, after which those officers who were present gave their monthly reports. The society regrets very much losing a valued member, Mrs. Fred Cable, who has moved to Waco. The ladies will meet at the church next Monday afternoon for Bible study.

The Essex Car

Is only one of the many desirable things we have in stock. It is the best of its kind, of course in our opinion. Equally as good in its way is the spirit of courtesy we put behind it, the maintenance system we provide for all its owners, the personal interest we take in each and every one of them, the conscientious effort we make to do things right and earn our customers friendship.

The Essex car is a great machine and deserves that kind of backing. But the credit for that goes to the Essex factory. We could not build it here if we wanted to but we can build a business atmosphere to match it in quality, and we work days and nights to accomplish that purpose.

The Essex owner is the judge of our success. Ask him about the spirit of our business.

PAINFUL INDIGESTION

Lady Says She Obtained Relief
By Taking Small Doses of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Ardmore, Okla.—"I have recommended Black-Draught to a great many people, and they always thank me, afterwards," says Mrs. Czarina Duke, 116 "B" Street, this city. "Fifteen years ago, I was in very bad health. I suffered a great deal with indigestion, and I traveled from one place to another in search of health, but nothing helped me. I lost in weight, and my food disagreed with me, and I could scarcely eat a bite that did not give me indigestion. "Often I had bad gas pains across my stomach, and I would wake up in the mornings with very bad headaches. I had a bad taste in my mouth, and would feel dizzy when I was on my feet. "I began taking Black-Draught and soon found that I was getting better. I took a dose about the size of a pea, four or five times a day, for three or four days. "After I had taken several courses of Black-Draught, in that way, I felt fine. I no longer had indigestion. I could eat what I liked, and enjoyed my meals. I gained in weight, and felt able to care for my children and do my housework. "In use nearly a hundred years. Twenty-five doses 25¢. NC-213

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The jury, in the case on trial against John Flewellen in the district court here last week, brought in a verdict early Friday morning, finding the defendant guilty of murder of Charles Harris, another negro, at Branchville, in October 1928, and fixed the punishment at 99 years in the penitentiary. This case was heretofore tried in January this year, and in that trial the defendant received only 18 years. In this motion for a new trial, in January, the defendant attached an affidavit from a colored party who had known him all her life, to the effect that Silvia Davis, the main witness for the State, had told this party that she (Silvia), was going to kill the deceased, but the trial court over-ruled the motion and the Court of Criminal Appeals held it was error and reversed the case holding testimony was very material in defense of defendant. The witness who made the affidavit appeared in the trial last week and testified, in accordance with the statements in her affidavit, but she did not testify in the first trial. The defendant presented his motion for new trial in the 99 year penalty Saturday but it was over-ruled by the trial court and he again gave notice of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Evidence in the trial showed deceased and defendant were associates of Silvia Davis and the state claims this showed motive on the part of defendant to commit the crime.

The September term of district court convened Monday and the following were empaneled as grand jurors: Judd G. Davis, foreman, J. W. Coleman, Ray Burke, Cameron, L. N. Hudson, Rockdale; J. A. Moore, Davilla; Lesser Newton, Milano; H. H. Hartsfield, Maysfield; H. P. McKinney, Jones Prairie; C. C. Sproul, Ben Arnold; H. F. Helpert, Burlington; Shelby Phillips, Thorndale; R. P. Lehman, Buckholts.

The case involving the appointment of an administrator of the community estate of J. J. and Mary Stigall, deceased, was set Monday, but on account of the busy cotton picking season, and the hardship on the farmers to be absent from their work just now, the attorneys for both sides, at the suggestion of the court, agreed to let the case go over till the 21st of October.

There are no jury cases set prior to the 16th, when the case against Fred Matthews will be called for trial for the killing of Joe Hoshch here on the sixth of July.

Judge Watson has consented to exchange benches next week with Judge M. C. Jeffrey of the 22nd District and will go to New Braunfels next Monday and call the case of the State against Rebecca Rogers for robbery of the bank at Buda in 1926. This case was transferred from Hays to Fayette county, and tried at La Grange in 1927, resulting in a conviction of defendant of robbery with fire arms and punishment fixed at 14 years in the penitentiary. Upon appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals the case was reversed for reasons, stated in the opinion of that court, of improper argument by the district attorney to the jury. The lower court then transferred the case from Fayette to Comal county and it is set for the 9th, and if it goes to trial will likely consume fully two weeks.

The defendant was unmasked, a lone woman and obtained about $1000 having gone most of the way from Austin to Buda on the main highway and in the afternoon of the same day of the robbery was arrested by the sheriff in Austin, confessed her guilt, and as a result of such confession most of the money was recovered. Her reputation prior to the offense was shown to be good; there was no issue in the trial about the robbery, her defense was insanity. This was the only real issue upon the trial in the case. University professors, mental experts and state officials testified for defendant tending to show she was insane.

Flowery Motoring Rules

In Japan, the land of flowers and of ceremonious courtesy, the following printed card is issued to English speaking motorists, full of much flowery language as even the residents of this Oriental could desire.

'At the rise of the hand of policeman, stop rapidly. Do not pass or otherwise disrespect him. When passenger of the foot hove in sight, tootle the horn. Trumpet melodiously at first. Then tootle with vigor and express by word of mouth the warning, 'Hi, Hi.'

'Beware of the wandering horse that he shall not take fright. Go soothingly by.

'Give space to the festive dog that makes sport in the roadway. Avoid entanglement of the dog with your wheel spokes.

'Go soothingly on the grease-mud as there lurk the skid demon. Press the brake of the foot as you roll around the corners to save the collapse and tie-up.

State Motor Patrol

Texas highways will be patrolled by 50 motorcycle officers after about October 1. These patrolmen will be expected to enforce the Texas highway laws, under an act passed by the last legislature. Texas is so large and the force will be so small that it will not be possible to bring about entire observance of the laws, but if the patrol officers do their duty they will be able to secure much better observance of the rules of the roads. Many people persistently violate traffic regulations either because they are 'road hogs,' or through ignorance of the regulations. One duty of the road patrol will be to instruct the public in these matters. A sort of civil examination will be given at each of the 18 highway divisional headquarters to determine the qualifications of applicants.

Truck and Bus Operators

There is much complaint of a quiet kind that operators of motor trucks, perhaps due to the fact that they are licensed and on the roads practically all of their time, are not as considerate of the rights of motorists as they should be. A drive over almost any road will confirm this. While many of these operators exercise proper regard for the road rights of others, far too many appear to take delight in monopolizing the roadways. After they ignore signals from approaching cars to get to the side, forcing faster travel to stay behind or to turn off the paved part of the road. Many of them use most of the highway in rounding curves, and some appear to take delight in seeing how close they can drive to the smaller vehicles they meet. Regulations will have to be made to revoke the licenses of such drivers, and the new patrol force should be able to enforce these.

Too Many Inspectors

The Center Champion voices the sentiment of the public in calling attention to the fact Texas has too many inspectors and investigators of one kind or another traveling over the State at the expense of the taxpayers, and that the public is getting tired of it. Texas needs an investigating committee to investigate the investigators. Doubtless more than half of them are not needed, and the State would be better off without them. There is entirely too much 'loafing' at State expense in every department of the State government, and too much 'joy-riding' with the people paying the bills.

Inviting Trouble

They may know it, but the 3 Texas regional Chambers of Commerce are inviting a whole lot of trouble on a rough road in sponsoring a big road bond issue to be paid out of gasoline taxes and automobile registration fees. If they induce the local chambers to back their efforts, it is also going to make hard sailing for them. Most people want good roads, but believe that the amount now being handled by the Highway Commission is about all that body can spend with any degree of economy. There is some justice perhaps in the proposal to have the State retire certain road bond issues in some counties, but that can be done from present highway revenues, without State bonds. The Texas attitude toward constitutional amendments and State bond issues will have to change wonderfully or the efforts now being made will be worse than wasted.

Warrants Instead of Bonds

A writer for Texas papers that circulate largely among country real estate owners gets a viewpoint not always apparent to the papers and the people who contact only the city people, so while on the subject of bonds another matter will be mentioned here. There is a fairly general belief in Texas that where the future credit of taxpayers is to be pledged, it should be done only on the vote of the people and not by officials who have not been specially instructed as to such credit. A custom has grown up in some counties for the commissioners to issue county warrants for deferred payments on public improvements instead of leaving the matter of bond issues to the taxpayers themselves. One reader of this column asks, 'Do we any longer have a government of the people, by the people and for the people in Texas, or do we have a government of the officials, by the officials and for the officials?'

Speaking of Officials

It has developed that county officers in the populous counties of Texas are receiving in some cases from $10,000 to $20,000 a year in salaries and fees, with a possibility in some instances of the amount reaching $30,000. In doing so they are not violating any law. Liberal minded legislators have merely 'fixed things' so it can be done legally, and the people have not been aware and the 'public crib,' which they have been filling has been so fattening.

Pampa Votes Bonds

Most of the young cities of Texas believe in providing for both the necessities and the comforts of modern life. Pampa recently voted a $238,000 bond issue by a vote of nearly 5 to 1. While the larger part of the funds will be used for a city hall, fire station and paving, $20,000 is to be used for parks and playgrounds.

Citrus Fruit Association

Citrus fruit growers of Texas have suffered heavy losses at times for lack of advantageous marketing facilities. This is true of Texas growers of products of all kinds. Texans have never fully recognized the importance of marketing organizations. The citrus and vegetable growers of the Lower Rio Grande Valley are negotiating with the United Growers of America, a $50,000,000 fruit and vegetable corporation, for marketing their products. With the large acreage planted to young trees, a hit-or-miss marketing system could no longer be depended on.

Tomato Canning Profitable

The cannery at Nacogdoches has closed its first season of tomato canning, and has sold 15 cars of canned tomatoes. Three hundred acres of tomatoes were planted this year by farmers under contract with the canning plant. The acreage will be increased next year.

South Texas Tomatoes

The diversity of Texas climates is shown in the statements the same week that the tomato season has just closed at Nacogdoches and that growers at Carrizo Springs were busy planting a crop for the fall market. At the latter place, where the land is irrigated, two crops may be grown each year.

Kerr County Hills

Texans are finding that the Hill Country of West Texas furnishes a summer climate in many ways more attractive than that of Colorado. O. R. Seagraves, a Houston capitalist, is building a palatial home, to cost $150, 000 on his 60,000 acre ranch surrounding the headwaters of the Gaudalupe and Llano rivers, where he has an immense game preserve.

Texas Deep Water Ports

Texas now has eight deep water ports: three about Sabine Lake, three about Galveston Bay, one at the mouth of the Brazos river, and another at Corpus Christi Bay. Another deep water project is being studied for Point Isabel, some money already having been expended there. Another port seems a necessity for the rapid developing section of the lower Rio Grande Valley.

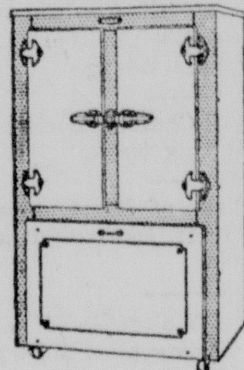

Limits Filling Stations

Del Rio has decided that there should be a limit to the number of corner filling stations and has passed an ordinance prohibiting the erection of any more along certain parts of the main street. The ordinance says there are already enough in the prohibited zone to supply the demand. For the same reason practically every Texas town might pass a similar ordinance. Enough of anything is a plenty.

Epworth League On Picnic Near Hearne

The old J. R. White plantation, ten miles south of Hearne, was the scene of a happy picnic last Thursday evening when members of the Cameron Senior Epworth League and their guests, the Baptist Senior B. Y. P. U. members, enjoyed a chicken supper there. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bletsch, cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dryer of Cameron, now live on the plantation and Mr. and Mrs. Dryer chaperoned the Cameron group, who went to the plantation on trucks.

The trip was an enjoyable one because of its novelty. The old home on the plantation was rebuilt in 1900 but it is an exact replica of the original mansion, with its wide verandas, its curving stairways, the bell at the rear and its antique furniture throughout. However, modern conveniences have found their way to this reminder of the old south, and the Bletschs enjoy the comfort of hot and cold water, a Frigidaire and all the other present day facilities.

About 35 or 40 young people from Cameron were present.

KELLY SPRINGFIELD TIRES

Kelly's are built in volume large enough to keep down costs, but without forcing production to the point where quality has to be jeopardized.

Thirty-four years ago Kelly built the first successful solid rubber carriage tire. Fourteen years ago Kelly built the first pneumatic automobile tires that even approximated modern tire mileage. Today Kelly's are still far in advance. Yet they cost no more than many other tires. Below are listed a few sizes and prices. Other sizes priced proportionately.

Epworth League On Picnic Near Hearne

The old J. R. White plantation, ten miles south of Hearne, was the scene of a happy picnic last Thursday evening when members of the Cameron Senior Epworth League and their guests, the Baptist Senior B. Y. P. U. members, enjoyed a chicken supper there. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Blotsch, cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dryer of Cameron, now live on the plantation and Mr. and Mrs. Dryer chaperoned the Cameron group, who went to the plantation on trucks.

The trip was an enjoyable one because of its novelty. The old home on the plantation was rebuilt in 1900 but it is an exact replica of the original mansion, with its wide verandas, its curving stairways, the bell at the rear and its antique furniture throughout. However, modern conveniences have found their way to this reminder of the old south, and the Blotschs enjoy the comfort of hot and cold water, a Frigidaire and all the other present day facilities.

About 35 or 40 young people from Cameron were present.

KELLY SPRINGFIELD TIRES

Kelly's are built in volume large enough to keep down costs, but without forcing production to the point where quality has to be jeopardized.

Thirty-four years ago Kelly built the first successful solid rubber carriage tire. Fourteen years ago Kelly built the first pneumatic automobile tires that even approximated modern tire mileage. Today Kelly's are still far in advance. Yet they cost no more than many other tires. Below are listed a few sizes and prices. Other sizes priced proportionately.

Cameron Pastor To Do Preaching At Union Revival

Thorndale Cooperative Meeting in the Methodist Church begins September first and closes September eighth. The pastor will preach Sunday, September 1 at 11 a. m., and at 8 p. m. The pastor of the Methodist church of Cameron will be with us from the second day up to the eighth and will preach for us.

Clarence Jackson will lead the singing during this meeting and we would like all the singers to cooperate with him.

I am sure that all the Christian people and workers in the Baptist, Christian and Methodist churches feel the great need of a spiritual revival. If that is true—and it is true—when let us make good use of this opportunity, not as one church, but with a spirit of cooperation. That is Christ's way—the only way—and in unity is strength.

If we have any applicants for membership, which I do hope, they may and can join the church of their choice.

Now let us all make a united effort, not look for excuses, for this town with so many good people needs a spiritual uplift.

That every body is welcome is useless for me to say. However we all want you to come and you know it. Come and bring your children and friends from September 1 to the 8—
H. W. WEISE, Pastor.

FRIGIDAIRE SOUVENIR BOOKLET OFFERS WAY TO SAVE ALL FOODS

Use of left over foods in an economical and attractive way is covered in a very interesting manner in 'Food Handling in the Home,' a special souvenir booklet published by Frigidaire Corporation for general circulation in connection with the national food preservation campaign being conducted this month by the refrigeration industry.

Salads, soups, stews and other vegetable combinations in almost limitless variety may be made from left over foods which have been kept fresh and tasty. Bouillon, orange juice and vegetables held at a temperature of 42 degrees can be kept from 10 to 15 days, it is pointed out.

Proper arrangement of food in a refrigerator, so that space can be utilized to best advantage is covered in one chapter. Four distinct advantages of quantity buying are explained. Considerable space is devoted to discussion of food preservation during the winter months.

A feature of the booklet is an authoritative article from the Christian Science Monitor on points to consider in selection of a mechanical refrigerator. Another chapter of unusual interest sets forth a large number of recipes covering the preparation of desserts and salads to be frozen in an electric refrigerator.

The booklet contains also the complete rules covering a $25,000 national idea contest for an essay on 'Why 50 Degrees is the Danger Point.' THE BANK'S PART IN THE FARM PROBLEM

By H. LANE YOUNG

Member American Bankers Association
Agricultural Commission

ONE of the most discussed and least understood questions regarding the farmer's problems is the part the bank has played, or is to play, in financing the farmer. The basis of co-operation between the two, however, is a very simple one.

H. Lane Young

Both sides are subject to criticism for the condition that exists today. The major share of the blame rests on those banks that have failed through disregarding fundamental principles in loaning other people's money, that have encouraged the farmer to expect bank loans without first putting his business on the earning basis which would justify a bank to lend him money.

One of the underlying reasons for the failure of so many country banks has been the existence of too many banks. With the limited business of the community divided among too many banks it was impossible for them to make enough money to justify the employment of officers with the proper ability to manage the bank successfully. Then the scramble for business was so hard that good judgment and foresight were forgotten in granting loans, with the resultant failure of the weaker institutions.

In the future, banks are not going to loan the money of their depositors without the kind of security that can be immediately realized upon in case the loan is not paid, or unless the applicant presents a sound and successful record of business operation—whether that business be manufacturing, merchandising, or farming.

Farming-Banking Interdependent

This is a perfectly obvious attitude, because country banking cannot be successfully and profitably carried on unless farming is successfully and profitably operated—the two businesses are dependent upon each other. There is no longer any question that the time has arrived for these interdependent businesses to reach a common ground of understanding of the requirements that both must meet for their mutual welfare.

There is no doubt but what the future prosperity of the farmer and the basis of cooperation between banker and farmer is the intelligent diversification of crops. It is necessary, however, to have the right conception of diversification.

The mistake that many farmers have made in attempting to diversify has been to invest too much money, time and land in a new and untried crop—sometimes a hazardous crop, or one for which no immediate market has been developed, resulting in a loss of the initial effort and discouragement of future efforts on a more conservative basis.

Disregarding the primary and essential principle of farming—namely, increasing earnings by decreasing the cost of production through the practice of building up soil by crop rotation and intensive cultivation, is responsible for a large share of the farmers' trouble today.

As An Agriculturalist Sees Farm Board's Job

The new Agricultural Marketing Act approaches farm relief from a materially different point of view from that of former bills before Congress in recent years, says Dean H. L. Russell of Wisconsin University College of Agriculture in the American Bankers Association Journal.

"It contains a new idea, fraught with the greatest possibilities—the organization of a Federal Farm Board," he says. "It has been possible for farm cooperatives to borrow from Federal aided institutions before, and at a materially lower rate than city business men had to pay for working capital, but this is the first set-up made by the government in which a commission has been carefully chosen to give undivided attention to an effort to solve the problems of a farm group."

"It is hard to conceive of a higher degree of responsibility than must be assumed by this commission. No board ever created by congressional action has been clothed with as wide plenary powers. It is authorized not only to advise but to execute, to plan and put its plans into effective action, to buy and hold, to dump, to dip into the Federal treasury to accomplish its ends, with what would be almost unlimited resources to any private commercial concern. The board's only job is to succeed, and no governmental agency even during the war time emergency had a wider latitude. Many will think the farm relief program will be universally applicable to the individual land owner or operator. Such procedure is far from the case. Aid is to be extended through cooperative organizations by making it possible for such groups to obtain each advances to hold crops so as to permit of more orderly marketing."

"While the primary relation is with cooperatives, the individual or unorganized farmer will also profit by the activities of his organized fellows. If a stabilized program of merchandising is able to eliminate the surpluses that exert such depressing influence on prices the general price relation should be improved. If this occurs the individual farmer should also benefit.

"It is here the government is proposing a novel attempt in economics. Through stabilization corporations for each commodity it is proposed to make possible the handling of the surplus so as to lessen its disturbing influence on prices. With non-perishable products such a program is, of course, conceivably possible, but one wonders what would happen if a stabilization corporation had to handle a perishable crop in great quantities.

"Is it going to be possible for a stabilization corporation to stabilize? It would be one thing if it had merely to stabilize the American situation, but often that situation is complicated with world conditions. Perhaps the very fact that such a stabilization corporation is in position to function may have a steadying effect on the market. "Markets respond to psychological stimuli as do individuals. The very fact that the government has now definitely stepped into the breach with all its resources available to make the new plan work will exert undoubtedly a strong stabilizing effect."

"It would be presumptuous to forecast what the ultimate effect of the new act will be. It can, however, be definitely stated that in the present plan much of the philosophy that had been so drastically criticized as economically unsound has been eliminated. The existing plan is worth trying. It will undoubtedly cost the Federal treasury no inconsiderable amounts of money, but if it produces the hoped-for result it will have been well worth while."

BANKING FINDS THE WAY TO SAFER ERA

By FRANK W. SIMMONDS,
American Bankers Association

In considering the banking situation throughout the country, the fact should be kept in mind that while one bank in ten failed during the past eight years, it is far more important that nine banks out of ten, operating in the same general field, serving the same communities and meeting almost identically the same problems, weathered the economic storm of readjustment successfully. This achievement cannot be ascribed to any element of luck, but rather to consistent adherence to sound banking principles and profitable practices. Through worthy and efficient management they met the issues and problems confronting them, squarely and successfully.

Banking is regarded as the keystone of our entire business structure, hence bank failures are rightly regarded as intolerable public calamities that must absolutely be prevented. The three major objectives of all inter-bank organizations, whether local, county, district, state or national, are to make banking safer for all concerned and, through increased efficiency in bank management and supervision, to lessen or eliminate all forms of losses so that greater rewards may accrue to banking and better service to the public. There is definite evidence throughout the country of a strong and growing spirit of cooperation among bankers and banking organizations, which is resulting more and more in strengthening the work of all.

Clearinghouse associations among banks in city, county or district groups undoubtedly constitute the chief line of defense against bad banking practices. They have demonstrated that they are the principal factor in bringing about reformation in banking regulations, improvements in banking methods and the observance of sound banking principles. For many years the primary purpose of a clearinghouse association was the clearance of checks, but today it is the clearance of banking ideas and the solution of banking problems. Clearinghouses supply the local machinery essential for setting up and putting in practice necessary standards and uniformities. There are now 435 clearinghouse associations in cities, towns, counties and groups of counties in the United States.

Men today are more intelligently group-minded than ever before. Banking is combining the best elements of competition with sound group action. By virtue of this combination, individual thought has much wider possibilities of expression. In general, group action has not stifled but has stimulated individual thinking and initiative. Better inter-bank organization and relationships afforded by clearinghouses would have undoubtedly saved many institutions that have suffered failure in the past. The clearinghouse activities of the American Bankers Association are conducted for the purpose of encouraging ever widening cooperation along fundamental principles and practices among banks through clearinghouse associations. Bankers in every city, county or district can, through the agency of a clearinghouse, promote better, safer and more profitable banking and also serve their communities better.

There never was a time when successful bankers were so alert to the value of team work for putting the entire banking structure in prime condition. Sound bank management is the order of the day. Constructive cooperation is more than a sentiment, it is an economic necessity, a matter of enlightened self-interest, and successful bankers more and more are utilizing the agency of constructive group action in developing and establishing necessary standards and uniformities in banking practices. Each year banking is becoming more of a science and attaining higher professional standards.

THE BANK'S PART IN THE FARM PROBLEM

By H. LANE YOUNG

Member American Bankers Association
Agricultural Commission

ONE of the most discussed and least understood questions regarding the farmer's problems is the part the bank has played, or is to play, in financing the farmer. The basis of co-operation between the two, however, is a very simple one.

H. Lane Young

Both sides are subject to criticism for the condition that exists today. The major share of the blame rests on those banks that have failed through disregarding fundamental principles in loaning other people's money, that have encouraged the farmer to expect bank loans without first putting his business on the earning basis which would justify a bank to lend him money.

One of the underlying reasons for the failure of so many country banks has been the existence of too many banks. With the limited business of the community divided among too many banks it was impossible for them to make enough money to justify the employment of officers with the proper ability to manage the bank successfully. Then the scramble for business was so hard that good judgment and foresight were forgotten in granting loans, with the resultant failure of the weaker institutions.

In the future, banks are not going to loan the money of their depositors without the kind of security that can be immediately realized upon in case the loan is not paid, or unless the applicant presents a sound and successful record of business operation—whether that business be manufacturing, merchandising, or farming.

Farming-Banking Interdependence

This is a perfectly obvious attitude, because country banking cannot be successfully and profitably carried on unless farming is successfully and profitably operated—the two businesses are dependent upon each other. There is no longer any question that the time has arrived for these interdependent businesses to reach a common ground of understanding of the requirements that both must meet for their mutual welfare.

There is no doubt but what the future prosperity of the farmer and the basis of cooperation between banker and farmer is the intelligent diversification of crops. It is necessary, however, to have the right conception of diversification.

The mistake that many farmers have made in attempting to diversify has been to invest too much money, time and land in a new and untried crop—sometimes a hazardous crop, or one for which no immediate market has been developed, resulting in a loss of the initial effort and discouragement of future efforts on a more conservative basis.

Disregarding the primary and essential principle of farming—namely, increasing earnings by decreasing the cost of production through the practice of building up soil by crop rotation and intensive cultivation, is responsible for a large share of the farmers' trouble today.

As An Agriculturalist Sees Farm Board's Job

The new Agricultural Marketing Act approaches farm relief from a materially different point of view from that of former bills before Congress in recent years, says Dean H. L. Russell of Wisconsin University College of Agriculture in the American Bankers Association Journal.

"It contains a new idea, fraught with the greatest possibilities—the organization of a Federal Farm Board," he says. "It has been possible for farm cooperatives to borrow from Federal aided institutions before, and at a materially lower rate than city business men had to pay for working capital, but this is the first set-up made by the government in which a commission has been carefully chosen to give undivided attention to an effort to solve the problems of a farm group."

"It is hard to conceive of a higher degree of responsibility than must be assumed by this commission. No board ever created by congressional action has been clothed with as wide plenary powers. It is authorized not only to advise but to execute, to plan and put its plans into effective action, to buy and hold, to dump, to dip into the Federal treasury to accomplish its ends, with what would be almost unlimited resources to any private commercial concern. The board's only job is to succeed, and no governmental agency even during the war time emergency had a wider latitude."

"Many will think the farm relief program will be universally applicable to the individual land owner or operator. Such procedure is far from the case. Aid is to be extended through cooperative organizations by making it possible for such groups to obtain cash advances to hold crops so as to permit of more orderly marketing."

"While the primary relation is with cooperatives, the individual or unorganized farmer will also profit by the activities of his organized fellows. If a stabilized program of merchandising is able to eliminate the surpluses that exert such depressing influence on prices the general price relation should be improved. If this occurs the individual farmer should also benefit."

"It is here the government is proposing a novel attempt in economics. Through stabilization corporations for each commodity it is proposed to make possible the handling of the surplus so as to lessen its disturbing influence on prices. With non-perishable products such a program is, of course, conceivably possible, but one wonders what would happen if a stabilization corporation had to handle a perishable crop in great quantities."

"Is it going to be possible for a stabilization corporation to stabilize? It would be one thing if it had merely to stabilize the American situation, but often that situation is complicated with world conditions. Perhaps the very fact that such a stabilization corporation is in position to function may have a steady effect on the market. Markets respond to psychological stimuli as do individuals. The very fact that the government has now definitely stepped into the breach with all of its resources available to make the new plan work will exert undoubtedly a strong stabilizing effect."

"It would be presumptuous to forecast what the ultimate effect of the new act will be. It can, however, be definitely stated that in the present plan much of the philosophy that has been so drastically criticized as economically unsound has been eliminated. The existing plan is worth trying. It will undoubtedly cost the Federal treasury no inconsiderable amounts of money, but if it produces the hoped-for result it will have been well worth while."

Mississippi Lady Tells How She Suffered Until She Had Taken Cardui on a Friend's Advice.

Greenville, Miss.—In describing how she suffered several years ago, Mrs. Mattie Dalton, of 112 Pecan Street, this city, recently wrote:

"I would cramp, and my hands and feet would draw, so I came near having convulsions. I would have to stay in bed, sometimes a week, and when I would get up, I just dragged around, and did not feel like doing my work. I suffered a great deal with my back.

"A friend came to see me and saw how I suffered. She told me to try taking Cardui, which I did. I seemed to have more strength, after my first bottle. After I had taken about four bottles of Cardui, I saw a great improvement.

"I quit having such bad spells, and was stronger and better than in a long time. I gained in weight. I took a few more bottles of Cardui, and felt so well that I quit taking it. "I certainly can recommend Cardui, for I know what it is to suffer, and I know that Cardui helped me." Only 50 Per Cent Of Births Are Registered In Milam County

According to figures compiled from data secured by the scholastic census enumerators and checked with the birth certificates on file with the State Health Department only 50 per cent of the children born in Milam county during 1928 were registered by the physician or midwife in attendance, as required by law. Among the whites only 61 per cent were registered, while only 32 per cent of the negroes were registered, and only 20 per cent of the Mexicans were registered. This shows clearly that the doctors and midwives are failing to comply with the law and are thus depriving one-half of the children of the protection of a legal record of their age, parentage and citizenship.

This failure is also causing the veterans of the World War and their widows a considerable amount of trouble and expense in filing claims for compensation with the Veteran's Bureau.

A concerted drive is being made at this time in an effort to improve registration in Texas so that it may be admitted to the Federal Registration Area during 1929. If this is to be done the combined efforts of all civic agencies and local officials is necessary. Only two other states are outside of the Area at this time. 90 per cent efficiency is required for admission.

Mississippi Lady Tells How She Suffered Until She Had Taken Cardui on a Friend's Advice.

Greenville, Miss.—In describing how she suffered several years ago, Mrs. Mattie Dalton, of 112 Pecan Street, this city, recently wrote:

"I would cramp, and my hands and feet would draw, so I came near having convulsions. I would have to stay in bed, sometimes a week, and when I would get up, I just dragged around, and did not feel like doing my work. I suffered a great deal with my back.

"A friend came to see me and saw how I suffered. She told me to try taking Cardui, which I did. I seemed to have more strength, after my first bottle. After I had taken about four bottles of Cardui, I saw a great improvement.

"I quit having such bad spells, and was stronger and better than in a long time. I gained in weight. I took a few more bottles of Cardui, and felt so well that I quit taking it.

"I certainly can recommend Cardui, for I know what it is to suffer, and I know that Cardui helped me."

Thousands of women have written to tell of the benefit Cardui has been to them, in helping them to build up their health.

Having helped so many others, Cardui should help you, too. NC-272

Only 50 Per Cent Of Births Are Registered In Milam County

According to figures compiled from data secured by the scholastic census enumerators and checked with the birth certificates on file with the State Health Department only 50 per cent of the children born in Milam county during 1928 were registered by the physician or midwife in attendance, as required by law. Among the whites only 61 per cent were registered, while only 32 per cent of the negroes were registered, and only 20 per cent of the Mexicans were registered. This shows clearly that the doctors and midwives are failing to comply with the law and are thus depriving one-half of the children of the protection of a legal record of their age, parentage and citizenship. This failure is also causing the veterans of the World War and their widows a considerable amount of trouble and expense in filing claims for compensation with the Veteran's Bureau.

A concerted drive is being made at this time in an effort to improve registration in Texas so that it may be admitted to the Federal Registration Area during 1929. If this is to be done the combined efforts of all civic agencies and local officials is necessary. Only two other states are outside of the Area at this time. 90 per cent efficiency is required for admission.

Throughout the evening the guests were served punch and at a late hour brick ice cream and cake were served.

Burkhead Well To Be Put On Pump

The operators of the Burkhead well drilling on the Weigmann lease were temporarily shut down several days the past week pending the arrival of equipment to put the well on pump to test out its actual production in the Edwards lime, in which formation a nice oil showing was made. The actual test will be made about the middle of the coming week when the equipment arrives. The promoters are confident that the well can be made a paying pumper.

Operations have been resumed on the Lloyd well located on the H. H. Camp place after a several days shutdown. Whether or not this well will be made a producer will probably be determined by next week. Interest has been keen and trading in leases and royalties over the showing of this test several days ago, and those in close touch with operations still are enthusiastic over its actions of strong gas pressure and occasional oil showing.

Work has also resumed this week on the Knight well being drilled by E. L. Chapman of Ft. Worth. This test was drilling in the Georgetown formation on Wednesday of this week.—Thorndale Champion.

No Market

An Altona young man who stayed with one job nearly 20 years, was reproved by his father severely when he finally decided to give up his position and seek a new means of making a living. 'My son,' said the parent, you should not forget that a rolling stone gathers no moss.' The son pondered the old adage a moment then answered: 'I know, father, but where in the world is there a market for moss?'

A Permanent Question

The stout woman struggled to enter the narrow doorway on a train. 'Hurry up there,' yelled the conductor, 'get in edgeways, madam.' The would-be traveler regarded the official with an angry glare. 'And what,' she snapped bitterly, 'what if I ain't got no edge.'

BANKING FINDS THE WAY TO SAFER ERA

By FRANK W. SIMMONDS,
American Bankers Association

In considering the banking situation throughout the country, the fact should be kept in mind that while one bank in ten failed during the past eight years, it is far more important that nine banks out of ten, operating in the same general field, serving the same communities and meeting almost identically the same problems, weathered the economic storm of readjustment successfully. This achievement cannot be ascribed to any element of luck, but rather to consistent adherence to sound banking principles and profitable practices. Through worthy and efficient management they met the issues and problems confronting them, squarely and successfully.

Banking is regarded as the keystone of our entire business structure, hence bank failures are rightly regarded as intolerable public calamities that must absolutely be prevented. The three major objectives of all inter-bank organizations, whether local, county, district, state or national, are to make banking safer for all concerned and, through increased efficiency in bank management and supervision, to lessen or eliminate all forms of loss so that greater rewards may accrue to banking and better service to the public. There is definite evidence throughout the country of a strong and growing spirit of cooperation among bankers and banking organizations, which is resulting more and more in strengthening the work of all.

Clearinghouse associations among banks in city, county or district groups undoubtedly constitute the chief line of defense against bad banking practices. They have demonstrated that they are the principal factor in bringing about reformation in banking regulations, improvements in banking methods and the observance of sound banking principles. For many years the primary purpose of a clearinghouse association was the clearance of checks, but today it is the clearance of banking ideas and the solution of banking problems. Clearinghouses supply the local machinery essential for setting up and putting in practice necessary standards and uniformities. There are now 435 clearinghouse associations in cities, towns, counties and groups of counties in the United States.

Men today are more intelligently group-minded than ever before. Banking is combining the best elements of competition with sound group action. By virtue of this combination, individual thought has much wider possibilities of expression. In general, group action has not stifled but has stimulated individual thinking and initiative. Better inter-bank organization and relationships afforded by clearinghouses would have undoubtedly saved the institutions that have suffered failure in the past. The clearinghouse activities of the American Bankers Association are conducted for the purpose of encouraging ever widening cooperation along fundamental principles and practices among banks through clearinghouse associations. Bankers in every city, county or district can, through the agency of a clearinghouse, promote better, safer and more profitable banking and also serve their communities better.

There never was a time when successful bankers were so alert to the value of team work for putting the entire banking structure in prime condition. Sound bank management is the order of the day. Constructive cooperation is more than a sentiment. It is a concrete necessity, a matter of enlightened self-interest, and successful bankers more and more are utilizing the agency of constructive group action in developing and establishing necessary standards and uniformities in banking practices. Each year banking is becoming more of a science and attaining higher professional standards.

The Church in Later Ages, Mrs. H. Atkinson.

Monastic Growth, Mrs. Joe Denson.

The Chapter will meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. The leader for the next program will be Mrs. Joe Denson.

Miss Gracie Herndon and Warren Herndon, children of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Herndon, have returned home from San Marcos where they attended summer school at Southwest Texas State Teachers College. Mr. Warren Herndon will serve as principal of the Maysfield school during the coming term and Miss Gracie will return to San Marcos for the winter.

ROY BEAN'S "JERSEY LILLY" NOW SPORTS MAYTAG; THERE WERE NONE THEN

When Judge Roy Bean, (the law west of the Pecos) dispatched justice in his court room which was also a saloon at Langtry, Texas, he gained undying fame as a reigning influence for law in a section of Texas larger than some states of the Union.

A copy of the Statutes of Texas was the only book in his law library. This with a strong personality and a six-shooter was the method of enforcing his law as he literally made it.

He held court in a saloon and gambling house which he named 'The Jersey Lilly' after the famous Lilly Langtry, an actress who died in Monte Carlo recently at the age of 77 years. In the early eighties she was the most beautiful actress in America.

The successor to Judge Roy Bean, Mr. W. H. Dodd, held the office of Justice of Peace for the next 17 years. His career has been almost as picturesque as Judge Bean's. Being a man of resourcefulness and high character he is still a leading citizen of this little town of Langtry and naturally it is fitting that a man of his type is a Maytag owner.

Mr. Dodd says that there are three possessions of his that he considers beyond price; the Maytag, the seal that Judge Roy Bean used as a notary, and the law book which constituted Judge Bean's library—this at present is over 50 years old.

Mr. Dodd recalls numerous interesting stories concerning Judge Bean's picturesque judgment. One of those was where a Mexican killed a Chinaman, who was the cook in one of the cow camps. The Mexican was acquitted as the Judge couldn't find anything in his law book showing it was a crime to kill a Chinaman.

During the Judge's regime, the body of an unidentified white man was found on the south side of the Pecos River under the bridge. This being outside of the Judge's district he sent some men across the river who brought the body back to the north side where the Judge conducted an inquest.

He picked a jury of six Mexicans who could not talk a word of English. Gazing soberly at the bridge, which was 300 feet high, he made the pronouncement that 'This here Corpus Delecti must have fallen off the bridge and that caused the death. Why, doggone it, it is the judgment of this court that a fall often that bridge onto these here rocks would kill anybody.' The jurymen said 'Si señor,' and that was the verdict.

After the inquest they searched the body and found a .44 Colt and $50.00 in money. The Judge confiscated the gun and fined the man $50.00 for carrying a concealed weapon. After this procedure the body was buried.

Another incident which Mr. Dodd recalls was when a special train carrying Mr. Jay Gould, the president of the Southern Pacific Railroad on an inspection passed through Langtry. The train was not scheduled to stop at Langtry, but Judge Bean, desiring to shake the hand of such a famous figure as Mr. Gould, flagged the train down. The conductor stuck his head out of the window and started to tell Judge Bean his opinion of anybody who would flag a special train when about that time Mr. Gould stuck his head out the window and spoke to Judge Bean. Introductions were made in turn and Mr. Gould left the train and went into the Jersey Lilly for a drink with the judge.

The telegraph operator also went in for a drink and became so wrapped up in the conversation that he forgot his keys. An hour later, being pretty well stewed up, he returned to his instruments and received a message from the chief dispatcher wanting to know what had become of the special and informing him that he was fired as soon as they could get a man in his place, for leaving his post. Whereupon he replied, 'I have been drinking with Jay Gould and Judge Roy Bean. Go-to-Hell.'

With Mr. Dodd there are numerous other Maytag owners in and around Langtry and these people yet have the hospitality and good fellowship that they had in the days gone by and anybody passing through Langtry will find great pleasure in stopping in and visiting Mr. Dodd, who is store keeper and post office man now at Langtry.

The cake was beautifully decorated with flags and when the cake was cut the flags were given to Misses Verna, Polly and Mae who are going away this week to school.

The parlor of the home was decorated with beautiful flowers. The program for the evening consisted of songs, and later the guests were invited to the yard which was decorated with beautifully colored lights. Games were played and the guests were delightfully entertained.

Mrs. J. W. McAtee and Mrs. Owen

Weems assisted Mrs. Vogelsang with the lunch for the guests. The following were present: Mrs. J. W. McAtee, Gladys Kinard, Ruby, Polly and Mae Nolan, Rosalee Kleypas, Bessie Talent, Mary Geiser, Anna and Edna Slama, Henrietta Werland, Norene Becker, Verna McAtee, Irene Vogelsang, Francis Nolan, Norene Klypas, Virginia Weems, Florene Lunsford, Homer Juergens, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Weems, Mrs. Kinard, Erwin, Egan and Monroe Vogelsang, Johnnie, Henry and Edd Geiser, Ed Hess, Albert Becker, Martin Becker, Edwin Spacek, Ollie Ernst, Arnold Juergens, Lester Poyel, Huah Martin and Dennis Klein.

Miss Dorothy Kidd Is Hostess To Annie Louise Friar of Cuero

Naming as honoree her house guest, Miss Annie Louise Friar of Cuero, Miss Dorothy Kidd entertained last Friday evening with a stroll party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Kidd.

The guests were received on the lawn, where colored lights made an attractive scene. Between strolls those present had their fortunes told by a gypsy fortune teller, impersonated by Miss Lucille Green. Dancing to the music of a portable was also enjoyed.

Throughout the evening the guests were served punch and at a late hour brick ice cream and cake were served.
